ATTY.-GENERAL

Named to Fill Vacancy Created by the Resignation of Hemenway.

Alexander Lindsay, Jr., has been named by Governor Frear to succeed Charles R. Hemenway as attorney general of the Territory. Judge Lindsay's nomination was endorsed by the Republican Central Committee yesterday noon and the committee congratulated the Governor upon the selection he had months ago resigned his position as second judge of the circuit court of first circuit, being succeeded by Judge Whitney. Since that time he has been engaged in private practise. His appointment seems to meet with popular an attorney-general as he was a circuit judge, no one can possibly find fault the Governor. He expects to leave office February 1, and as previously an-firm of which W. O. Smith is the head.

Mr. Hemenway has not done anything while in office which he should have left undone, so far as any public eriticism of his official conduct is concerned. He has argued eight cases be-

Secretary Ballinger stated that the functions of executive officers must conform to the law and the constitution, declaring that officials who transcend the constitution and assume authority not justified by the law of the country are themselves menaces to popular rights, although the unthinking majorty may acclaim them and the muckraking press may uphold them.

While the secretary mentioned no names in his address, it was well understood by those who listened that he was referring to the present crisis in ederal affairs and justifying and the President against the attack being made upon the administration by a large part of the mainland press and

CLEAR MAJORITY

LONDON, January 23 .- It is rumored ere that Premier Asquith may resign unless the Liberals have a clear majorty over all parties, including the I mionist opposition and the two minor parties, the Irish Nationalists and the English Laborites There is no doubt at the present time but that the Asquith government is sustained, but it is a question whether the straight Liberals will be able to ontvote the combined forces of the three other parties.

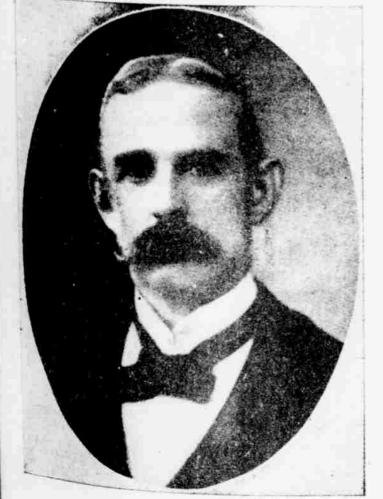

Premier Asquith's reported stand is thought to be one of opposition to the men that the balance of power is to be held by the Irish Nationalists, although the Nationalists and the Liberals are allied in the present campaign against the lords,
